In a significant move, GA\_P has played a pivotal role in advising Grupo Einsa on the strategic investment made by Sandton Capital, with Arcano serving as the exclusive financial advisor for long-term financing. The legal expertise for this transaction was provided by a distinguished team, including associate Carlos de la Luna (pictured left), partner Estibaliz Aranburu (pictured centre), and junior associate Marta del Toro (pictured right), representing various areas such as Corporate, Banking, and Finance.

This collaboration marks the third instance where Grupo Einsa has sought the specialized guidance of Arcano, emphasizing the trust and reliability the group places in their financial advisory services. The Debt & Capital Solutions team of Arcano's Investment Banking division, featuring prominent professionals like Jorge Vasallo, Mariano Villalonga, and Javier Román Bengoechea, played a crucial role in securing long-term financial support from Sandton Capital.

Founded in 1986, Grupo Einsa has evolved to encompass Einsa Print, a leading national graphic printing company, and Einsa Sourcing, a globally recognized logistics management firm offering comprehensive cargo solutions across more than 29 countries. This strategic partnership not only reflects the continued growth and diversification of Grupo Einsa but also underscores the excellence of Gómez Acebo & Pombo and Arcano in facilitating impactful financial transactions in the corporate landscape.
