Gómez-Acebo & Pombo has advised Cándido Miró, commercially known as Aceitunas Serpis, on the sale of a majority stake to Miura Partners, a spanish private equity fund.

Cándido Miró is a pioneering group in Spain that specialises in the manufacture and marketing of anchovy-stuffed olives.

By this acquisition, Miura aims to accelerate the company's growth and internationalisation, as well as to boost its innovation.

The team from GA_P advising Cándido Miró was formed by the partner of corporate and head of the Valencia office, Francisco Fita (pictured) and the associates of corporate, Carla Sancho-Tello and Belén Pina.
