Garrido Abogados has incorporated Ramón López Vilas, former judge of the Supreme Court of Spain, as of counsel

Ramón López Vilas (pictured), Civil Law professor and a judge of the Supreme Court of Spain on leave of absence, has just joined Garrido Abogados as of counsel.

He has developed his professional career in many ways: as legal advisor in the highest State institutions -as Spanish Parliament Presidency or the Council of State-, as a judge -he was a member of the Special Chamber of Conflicts of the Supreme Court-, as a teacher -he has performed teaching and representative functions in the Faculty of Law of the Universidad Complutense de Madrid and in the CEU San Pablo private University, as well as in the Judicial School-, as an academic -at the Royal Academy of Jurisprudence and Legislation of Spain- or as a member of the jury of the Prince of Asturias Awards -today Princess of Asturias Awards-.

According to the firm, the incorporation of Ramón López Vilas responds to its solid commitment to excellence "in the conviction that his talent and the calibre of his experience will contribute to continue giving the best possible service to the client."
