

GARRIGUES AND CUATRECASAS IN THE ACQUISITION OF EL MOSCA

Posted on 07/07/2022

Category: Deal & transactions

Tags: Ana Carrillo, Francisco Sánchez Baeza, Garrigues, Jose Manuel Hernando, María Pedreño

The Spain based holding company providing logistics and distribution services Compañia de Distribucion Integral Logista Holdings is to acquire 60% of Transportes El Mosca, the local freight co from Accionistas Particulares I, the investment holding company having an interest in the cultivation and production of potatoes and companies which provide business consulting.

The consideration was €106m ($111.34m).

The transaction is subject to necessary authorizations and approvals have been received from national authorities and the European Union and is expected to complete around September/October 2022.

Garrigues advised Transportes El Mosca with partners Jose Manuel Hernando (pictured left) and Francisco Sanchez Baeza (pictured right) and senior associates María Pedreño and Ana Carrillo.

Cuatrecasas advised Compañia de Distribucion Integral Logista Holdings with Javier Romero, Marcos García, Miguel Ángel Castaño, Ana Andrés and Catalina Guzmán. For the tax aspects: Antonio Barba and Ana Jorge. For competition aspects: Andrew Ward and Alexandre Picón.