Garrigues advised private equity firm Ergon Capital Partners on its acquisition of a controlling interest in Indo Optical from Sherpa Capital, which instructed DLA Piper.

Hogan Lovells acted for Ergon Capital's financial advisers, according to Mergermarket.

Under the terms of the deal, Sherpa will retain a minority interest in Indo Optical.

Spain-headquartered Indo Optical manufactures ophthalmic lenses and equipment for opticians and ophthalmologists.

Ergon Capital has around €1 billion worth of assets under management.
