The new position will be effective from May 1, 2022

Effective 1 May 2022, he will take up his appointment

Paulino Fajardo (pictured), partner in Herbert Smith Freehills' Spanish office, has been appointed head of the firm's Litigation and Arbitration practice in Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA).

With more than 30 years of practice, Paulino joined Herbert Smith Freehills as a partner in 2014.

With his appointment, Paulino replaces London office partner Jenny Stainsby, who is ending her three-year tenure as regional director of EMEA litigation.
