

HOGAN LOVELLS PROMOTES NEW COUNSEL

Posted on 05/01/2021

Category: Archive

Hogan Lovells Litigation & Arbitration senior associate Silvia Martínez has been promoted to counsel

Silvia Martínez Sastre (pictured) joined Hogan Lovells in 2008 right after graduating. She belongs to the Litigation & Arbitration area and is specialised in international arbitration.

She is well-known for representing local and international clients on commercial and investment treaty arbitrations in construction, engineering, technology and corporate disputes before the major arbitral institutions such as ICC, LCIA, ICSID, CAM, CIMA as well as in ad hoc arbitrations subject to the UNCITRAL rules.

She holds a double degree in Law and Economy from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid. Silvia is able to understand the economical aspects of the clients' problems, particularly on quantum issues. While at the University, Silvia was part of the team that won the XV edition of the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot.

Silvia was part of the team that represented Chile in the first attempt to execute a CIADI award in Spain.