Iberdrola has hired Carlota Catalán (pictured) as head of litigation to further strengthen the area.

Catalán holds a law degree and a master's degree in law from Esade, and furthered her knowledge at the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid specialising in criminal justice.

Previously, she developed her professional career at González Franco Abogados, Ilocad and has been responsible for the legal department of the Baltasar Garzón International Foundation.

At Iberdrola, she will be part of the group's litigation department led by Antonio Muñoz-Morillo, which was created in 2020.
