Domingos Cruz, managing partner of Portuguese firm CCA Law Firm, is the English version cover. An unusual lawyer who has revolutionised in the right way one of the oldest law firms in Portugal with his freshness and his way of understanding and applying Business Law.

Hugo de Almeida Pino, general counsel of Siemens Healthineers and Iberian Lawyer February's Portugal in-house tells us about the challenges that companies in the health and technology sector continue to face in the new year. The novelties in the food retail sector are revealed to us from the deputy general counsel of the DIA Group, Patricio Morenés, cover of the Spanish version of this first 2021 issue.

On Sports, Iberian Lawyer presents the first ranking of Spanish lawyers in Sports Law from firms and in-house lawyers, specialists in this same area.

Besides, experts from Legal Marketing and Communication agencies tell Iberian Lawyer the key trends that should not be lost sight along 2021.

Other important keys to Business Law, in this case in terms of investment and Private Equity, are analysed for Iberian Lawyer by Ignacio Aparicio, managing partner of Andersen's Corporate department in Spain.

And we go to Mexico to talk with the managing partner and country manager of ONTIER Mexico, the Spanish lawyer Lorenzo Hernández Allones, in the "Partners Abroad" section.

As our February "Young and Unstoppable" lawyer, Daniel Gutiérrez, a leader in his sector and has been managing his own firm, DG LAW Derecho de los Negocios & Propiedad Intelectual, based in Oviedo (Asturias), which specialises in providing Commercial advice to start-ups focused on developing digital businesses.

Collaborations from Women in a Legal World, Association of Corporate Counsel and World Compliance Association complete this issue.

The magazine is now available in English and Spanish.
