The Madrid Bar Association (ICAM) has paid posthumous tribute to Lola Conde, a corporate lawyer who passed away on 27 October. During the event, around a hundred professionals from the legal sector have met in the college where the Medal of Colleague of Honour has been posthumously awarded to the former co-president, director of the ICAM master's degree in access to the legal profession and director of the corporate legal department of Banco Santander.

In addition to this tribute, the Madrid Bar Association will change the name of the prize awarded annually by the corporate law section, which will be renamed the Lola Conde Prize.
