The Court of Arbitration of the Madrid Bar Association (ICAM) has appointed Ana Martinez (pictured) as its new ambassador.

Martinez has extensive experience in litigation and arbitration matters, both national and international, mainly in the corporate and commercial field, banking, real estate and construction, insurance, unfair competition and industrial and intellectual property. She also has extensive experience in contentious-administrative proceedings.

Maio Legal's arbitration and mediation partner will act as ambassador of the body, headed by its president, Jose Ignacio Monedero, who today held a working meeting with various arbitrators who seek to promote the dissemination of the Court of Arbitration to ensure that it becomes a reference in the Community of Madrid. The Dean of the Association, Eugenio Ribón, was also present at the meeting.
