TOP 10

Kirkland & Ellis takes the number two spot in the index, securing its highest ranking yet and improving in nearly every attribute used to assess U.S. brand strength. Latham & Watkins claims the third position, increasing its score from last year. Both firms have grown their brand scores at an impressive rate, closing the gap on Jones Day's long-term leading position.

The Acritas US Law Firm Brand Index 2020 is based on data compiled from Sharplegal 2019, a comprehensive study of the global legal market across 55 countries with over 2,000 in-house counsel who have senior responsibility for buying legal services in organizations with revenues of $50m and above.

Jones Day opened its Madrid office in 2000, with a multidisciplinary team of more than 40 lawyers.
