Madrid Annual Report 2012: Curing the capital

Spain is dominating the headlines for all the wrong reasons, most recently a banking sector bailout. Madrid, with its potential to generate wealth and attract investment, has to be the driving force for recovery. What the future holds is anyone's guess, but what is certain is that the current crisis is most definitely a game changer.

Law firm profile

It's not necessarily about size

Rafael Lucas Pires, Serra Lopes, Cortes Martins & Associados

Take a mid-sized firm with a solid track record, add a high profile privatisation and a pinch of visibility, and you have the recipe for defying the odds when it comes to size.
