King & Wood Mallesons has advised European packaging provider Solidus Solutions on the acquisition of Mayensa and Valtub, two Spanish companies specialized in the manufacturing of cardboard tubes

According to the firm, this acquisition will allow Solidus to further reinforce its position as a European leader in the packaging sector, offering not only a wider range of products but also consolidating its presence in South European countries.

The team from KWM was led by partner Germán Cabrera (pictured), and included partners Carlos Gil and José Antonio Calleja, and associates Fátima García de la Torre, Enrique Murillo, Cristina Esteban, and Pablo Salamanca
