

KPMG ABOGADOS ADVISES ON THE ACQUISITION OF A MAJORITY STAKE IN PLYMOUTH RUBBER

Posted on 18/03/2024

Categories: Corporate, Deal & transactions, Employment, Tax

Tags: KPMG Abogados, Plymouth Rubber, sx1, Talde Private Equity

KPMG Abogados has advised Plymouth Rubber España on the sale of a majority stake in the company to Talde Private Equity, a pioneer private equity group in Spain.

Plymouth Rubber Europe (PRE) is a company specialized in the manufacture and marketing of high quality adhesive tapes and other solutions for electrical insulation and has its headquarters, plant and laboratories in O Porriño (Pontevedra). From Spain and the United States, Plymouth sells to more than 75 countries.

The company has a consolidated presence in various sectors: industrial, electrical, telecommunications, mining and renewable energy companies, among others.

It stands out for the reputation of its brands and products, which are highly recognized among professionals in the sector, and its prestige makes it one of the leading companies in its field at an international level.

The transaction has involved a team led by Eva Hernando, partner of the legal-commercial area of KPMG Abogados, with the participation of Javier de Vicente, Inés Carballido, and Patricia Portela from the same department, José Ramón Cuervo, tax partner of the firm, and Manuel Flores from the labour and employment area of KPMG Abogados.