KPMG Abogados has advised the biscuit group Adam Foods (owner of Cuétara and Artiach, among other well-known brands) in the acquisition of 100% of the share capital of the Polish company Dr Gerard from the British fund Bridgepoint, in a strategic transaction within the framework of the group's international expansion.

Dr Gerard is the parent company of the Polish group Dr Gerard (with presence in other European countries, mainly Hungary and Romania), specialized in the production and marketing of cookies under the brands Dr Gerard and Artur and with more than 30 years of experience in the sector.

The legal team involved in the transaction was led by Luis Gómez Angelats (partner) and Adrian Castro (senior manager), with the participation of Marina Recolons and Laura Lucas, M&A lawyer, and with the support of the KPMG legal team in Warsaw.
