KPMG Abogados has advised on the sale of Vita Caps, a leading producer of Plant Sterol Esters and Non-GMO Natural Vitamin E derivatives for the food, to Kensing, a leading manufacturer of Natural Vitamin E, Plant Sterols and high-purity surfactants, and a portfolio company of One Rock Capital Partners.

The KPMG Abogados' team advising the sellers was led by M&A tax practice partner Fernando Gómez Galicia and senior manager Jacobo de la Guardia, assisted by associate Gonzalo Matamoros who, together with the rest of KPMG's team members, assisted the sellers on the transaction as tax vendor's due diligence advisors. Additionally, KPMG Abogados also supported Vitae Caps in the preparation of the legal vendor due diligence (led by partner Javier Bau – corporate and M&A – director Noemí Brito – IP – and director Ana López Carrascal - public law) and labor vendor due diligence (led by partner Francisco Fernández and associate Tamara Peyreto).
