KPMG Abogados has incorporated, Alexandra Borrallo, as new partner for litigation and insolvency department.

Alexandra was, until now, a senior associate at Clifford Chance, where she has worked for more than 14 years. Now, she joins KPMG Abogados to strengthen the litigation and insolvency department.

"The incorporation of Alexandra is a clear example of the firm's search for the best talent. Her knowledge and experience will boost the litigation and insolvency department, and will allow us to continue offering comprehensive advice with high added value," says Alberto Estrelles, managing partner of KPMG Abogados.
