Latham & Watkins has advised the creditors' committee on the refinancing of the debt of Grupo Mediapro, a firm specialised in the European audiovisual sector and headquartered in Spain. By this deal, the content production's company reduces its financial debt by €900 million.

The agreement includes a capital increase of €620 million with immediate effect, fully subscribed by its main shareholder, Southwind Group, the parent company of Chinese conglomerate Hontai Capital, which became a shareholder of Grupo Mediapro in 2018.
