

LATHAM & WATKINS LAUNCHES 'FOREIGN DIRECT INVESTMENTS' APP

Posted on 30/10/2019

Category: Archive

The free app covers the regulatory framework for investment in Spain and other markets such as the American, Chinese, British, French or German

According to the firm, the aim is to provide companies with a quick and easy overview of the steps to take to make investments in Spain, United States, China, France, Germany, United Kingdom, Italy, Russia, Australia, Saudi Arabia, Singapore and the Emirates United Arab Emirates (UAE).

Available from Apple's App Store (iOS) and Google Play (Android), the 'Foreign Direct Investments' (or FDI) addresses for each of these markets which institutions regulate investment what documentation or statements must be provided in a mandatory manner and what they are optional, how long it usually takes to complete the application process, and what costs are associated with it o what sanctions may be imposed on entities that do not invest in accordance with the law of each jurisdiction.