Lawesome Legal Services has recruited Amaia Legorburu as partner to lead its Donostia office

In addition to this, Amaia (pictured) incorporation means, according to the firm, “adding to the team talent and knowledge in alternative financing mechanisms for R&D projects, something that is increasingly important for our clients (both corporations and startups).”

She graduated in Law, specialized in Economics, from the Universidad de Deusto. Amaia comes from CIALT where she has been working since 2005.
