

LAWYERS FOR PROJECTS STRENGTHENS ITS MANAGEMENT TEAM

Posted on 10/05/2023

Category: Updates

Tags: Elisa de Gomar, Laia Moncosí, Lawyers for Projects, Natalia Cadarso, sx3

Lawyers for Projects (founded by Laia Moncosí) has reinforced its management team with the incorporation of Elisa de Gomar, as head of legal operations and projects and Natalia Cadarso, as Talent & Project Manager.

Elisa de Gomar has worked as a lawyer for KPMG Abogados, in the area of Corporate Law. Then at DWF-RDC, the law firm belonging to the DWF group between 2013 and 2016. Before joining lawyers for Projects, Elisa was a senior manager in the corporate, M&A and private equity department of PwC. She is now responsible for legal operations and projects, and flex counsel at the first flexible legal services firm in Spain.

Natalia Cadarso has worked for major law firms such as Clifford Chance, Garrigues or Uría Menendez. In 2021 she founded the law firm Cadarso & Goyos Ball together with her partner Mandy Goyos Ball. Now he joins Lawyers for Poryects as Talent & Project Manager.

Lawyers for Projects is the first flexible legal services firm in Spain. Founded in 2017, they combine the provision of legal and tax services to companies through flexible talent, by projects and with support in technology, with consulting in legal operations, legal project management and legal tech.

They have a hub of more than 120 lawyers and advisors with experience in law firms or in-house, to whom they offer the possibility to practice their profession in a more flexible and motivated way.