Linklaters advised Altamira Asset Management on the sale of an 85 per cent stake in the company to Italian loan management company doBank.

The deal was valued at €412 million.

Altamira – which has operations in Spain, Portugal, Cyprus and Greece – has approximately €55 billion of assets under management.

As of 31 December 2017, doBank – which is headquartered in the Italian city of Verona (pictured) – had €77 billion of assets under management.

The Linklaters team advising on the deal included partners Victor Manchado and Javier García-Pita, counsel Alejandro Meca, managing associates José María López and Belén Lavandera.

Ashurst advised doBank.
