

LINKLATERS ADVISES ON THE SALE OF PUERTO VENECIA SHOPPING CENTRE FOR €475.3 MILLION

Posted on 02/01/2020

Category: Archive

Linklaters advised Intu Properties and Canada Pension Plan Investment Board on the sale of

Puerto Venecia shopping centre to Generali and Union investment for €475.3 million

With a total area of 120,000 square meters between shopping and leisure areas and 19 million visits per year, it is one of the five most important shopping destinations in Spain. It was acquired by Intu in 2014 for €451 million.

The Madrid-based team from Linklaters was led by Adolfo Guerrero (pictured) and included Raquel Blanco, Santiago Alfonsetti, Alejandro Meca and Carlos Olmedo.