Miranda & Associados has just confirmed Luís Borges Rodrigues as a new equity partner, with Lília Tomé de Azevedo and Renato Guerra de Almeida promoted to salary partners.

A spokesperson from Miranda said: "These promotions reflect the firm's continued investment in its organic growth and in the development of its national and international practice. They also reflect the acknowledgment of the extraordinary work and activity carried out by each lawyer for Miranda and the Miranda Alliance, the results obtained and the merit of each one in their practice area and in the jurisdictions they advise."

Miranda's most recent equity partner, Luís Borges Rodrigues (pictured left), joined the firm in 2019 and is one of the partners responsible for the firm's Real Estate practice area, as well as its Corporate and Commercial practice area. The lawyer is also responsible for the coordination of the Cabo Verde jurisdiction. He is currently vice-chairman of the Portugal-South Atlantic Chamber of Commerce.

Lília Tomé de Azevedo (pictured centre) has over 15 years of experience, having joined Miranda in 2008 and was promoted to coordinating associate in 2015. Her main practice areas are Tax, Customs, Foreign Exchange and Anti-Corruption in several jurisdictions within the Miranda Alliance.

Renato Guerra de Almeida (pictured right) joined Miranda in 2007 and has over 15 years of experience. His practice is focused on Public and Regulatory Law and Infrastructure Projects in the various jurisdictions of the Miranda Alliance. He is also actively involved in the coordination of Miranda's operation in Timor-Leste, where he was the firm's representative between 2008 and 2009.

According to Diogo Xavier da Cunha, managing partner of Miranda, "We are very pleased to see Lília Tomé de Azevedo and Renato Guerra de Almeida join our group of partners. Both lawyers have been with us for many years and are today a reference in their respective practice areas. They embody the culture and values of the firm in a remarkable way. It is also with great satisfaction and pride that we highlight the addition of Luís Borges Rodrigues to Miranda's group of equity partners. It is the result of the excellent integration of Luís and his team since they joined us in 2019. It shows the well-deserved national and international recognition of Luís' exceptional talent and commitment and his personal qualities."
