Portuguese law firm MLGTS advised football agents Gestifute in relation to the transfer of midfielder Renato Sanches from Benfica to Bayern Munich.

The 18-year-old signed a five year contract with Bayern that will keep him at the club until 30 June 2021.

The basic fee for the player is €35 million, but potential bonus payments – that could become due if, for example, the player is named in the World Team of the Year or FIFA World Player of the Year – mean that the transfer could be worth up to €80 million.

Bayern Munich chairman Karl-Heinz Rummenigge said: "FC Bayern has been watching Renato Sanches for a long period, we're pleased we've been able to sign him despite big-name international competition. Renato is dynamic, a good tackler and a technically skilled midfielder who'll add even more strength to our team."

The MLGTS team advising on the transfer was led by senior lawyer Paulo Rendeiro.
