

MONTERO ARAMBURU IN THE SALE OF A MAJORITY STAKE OF COLIAENERGÍA ESPAÑA

Posted on 29/07/2022

Category: Energy

Tags: dx3, Miguel Cuesta Boothman, Montero Aramburu

Montero Aramburu has advised the shareholders of Coliaenergía España, owner of a portfolio of 1,808 MW of solar photovoltaic projects, on the sale of a majority stake in the company's capital to the German group PNE.

The sale and transfer of the 1,808 MW portfolio has been advised by Montero|Aramburu's multidisciplinary energy team, led by Corporate partner Miguel Cuesta Boothman (pictured above), in close collaboration with Corporate senior associates Víctor Moya Ximénez and Rebeca Cuesta and Corporate lawyer Julia Alfaro.

Clifford Chance advised Angelo Gordon with a cross-border team, led by the firm's Madrid office, comprising colleagues from the Netherlands, Italy, Luxembourg, France, Portugal and Turkey, worked on this complex transaction, and included: Íñigo Villoria, Felipe Font, Alexandra Borrallo, Boris Alonso, Juan Valcárcel, Evert van der Kaa, Jorrit Posthuma de Boer, Merel Vermolen, Evert Verwey, Claudio Cerabolini, Amedeo Sciolari, Francesco Straface, Lorena Loos, Ferdinando Poscio, Alessandra Ravazzolo, Stefanie Ferring, Sherazade Ould-Hocine, and Victor Cobuscean.