CIN, the leading Portuguese company in the Iberian paint and varnish market, has just acquired a majority stake in the Boero Group, the Italian market leader in paints for construction, yachts and ships.

Advised by Morais Leitão and the Italian firm BonelliErede, CIN, the leading Portuguese company in the Iberian paint and varnish market, has just acquired a majority stake in the Boero Group, the Italian market leader in paints for construction, yachts and ships. The Boero family has the legal backing of LCA Studio Legale, and maintains a stake in the Boero Group.

The Morais Leitão team was led by Bernardo Lobo Xavier, partner in Corporate M&A and Fábio Castro Russo, senior lawyer in the same team. BonelliErede, with a team led by Stefano Micheli, Corporate M&A partner and Fabio Saguato, associate, advised on Italian law aspects of the transaction.

For Bernardo Lobo Xavier "it is with a mix of enthusiasm and pride we participate in crossborder transactions alongside Portuguese's companies with which we have the best relations and which challenge us in their international growth".
