Prime Legal Abogados has launched in Barcelona with the aim of offering specialised professional services in practically all areas of Law, bringing together exclusively top-level lawyers in each of them

"Our professional and academic background and experience, our extensive knowledge of the Spanish legal and business market and the versatility of our team are some of the keys that will enable us to successfully meet any of your Legal needs. We offer practical solutions with high added value based on our extensive experience at the highest level. We are your trusted law firm," stated the law firm.

According to them, the announcement has been made official today after several months of work: "We are launching a project in which we have invested our enthusiasm, professionalism and, above all, our vocation for service. Today we announce the launch of Prime Legal Abogados, a first-class law firm made up of an experienced, multidisciplinary team committed to providing the best service to our clients."

Its team is made up of lawyers with extensive experience in large national and international law firms, with consolidated careers as independent specialists in their respective areas:
