Ontier has hired José María Fernández Mota (pictured left), from MA Abogados, as managing partner of the labour law department. It has also incorporated María Jesús Toraño (pictured right) as a senior lawyer.

José María Fernández Mota holds a degree in Law and Business Administration from Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and has more than 18 years of professional experience as a labour lawyer. Within Ontier, he will lead the labour law department and María Jesús Toraño will also join his team as a senior lawyer.

Fernández Mota has headed the labour law department of MA Abogados in Madrid since 2017 and has previously developed her professional career at Ussía & Martín de Vidales Abogados and at Rousaud Costas Duran. By her side, María Jesús Toraño has a law degree from the CEU San Pablo University and has developed her professional career at Bankpyme (between 1989 and 1995); Legalitas (from 2000 to 2010); Consultores y Patrimonio (from 2011 to 2016); and at MA Abogados (from 2017 to the present).

"José María Fernández Mota is an extraordinary person, with first-class professional skills and we know that, together with María Jesús Toraño, he will strengthen the great team at Ontier Spain", said Pedro Rodero, managing partner of Ontier Spain.
