The Spanish law firm, Garrido Abogados, has appointed Verónica Cerón (pictured) as the new head of the labour area. Cerón holds a law degree from the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid and has combined her professional life as a lawyer and teacher.

Verónica Cerón has more than 20 years of experience in providing labour law advice to companies of all sectors and profiles. She specialises in labour relations and human resources management as well as in corporate restructuring processes, collective bargaining and disputes.

She is currently a lecturer in Labour Law and Social Security at the Carlos III University of Madrid and in Labour Procedural Law on the Master's Degree in Labour Law Advice and Consultancy at the same university.
