The Spanish law firm, Ejaso ETL Global, has hired Enrique A. González (pictured) as a new Partner for the Commercial-Financial practice in Galicia. The firm currently has offices in Madrid, Barcelona, Lisbon, Seville, Zaragoza, Córdoba, Vigo and Coruña.

Enrique A. Gonzalez studied law at the University of Vigo and later completed an MBA at the Universidad Intercontinental de la Empresa.

Before joining Ejaso ETL Global, González developed his professional career in the Corporate and Financial-Banking areas of EY Abogados as a specialist in corporate legal advice to companies and financial institutions.

He also worked in other legal and financial firms, such as Global Finanzas Investment Group, a securities agency specialised in wealth management, corporate finance, IPOs and debt issues.

"With the incorporation of Enrique A. González, a lawyer with years of experience, we seek to strengthen a key area of business law for the middle market, such as commercial and financial law," said Manuel González-Haba Poggio, managing partner of Ejaso ETL Global.
