Andersen has incorporated Víctor Horcajuelo as a Partner in the Public and Regulatory Law department in the Madrid office to strengthen the practice.

Víctor Horcajuelo holds a degree in Law from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid and has more than 15 years of experience as a lawyer advising both private clients and public administrations.

During his professional career, he has worked at Hogan Lovells and Bird & Bird and has developed extensive experience in, among others, the telecommunications, digital economy, transport and infrastructure, gaming and audiovisual sectors.

José Vicente Morote and Íñigo Rodríguez-Sastre, Managing Partners of Andersen in Iberia, highlighted that the incorporation of Víctor Horcajuelo is "another step forward in the Firm's commitment to continue strengthening the Public Law area in order to place Andersen as one of the leading firms in this practice in the Spanish market".

Both pointed out that "this objective can be achieved with the incorporation of great professionals highly specialized in different branches of Public Law", an area which in Andersen is managed by José Vicente Morote and made up of 8 partners and 25 professionals. "We want to continue adding talent in order to have the best project for our professionals and offer the best service to our clients", said Morote and Rodríguez-Sastre.
