ONTIER has advised Kevin Allbola International, S.L., and Centauro & Partners, S.L., as former owners of Magnum & Partners Real Estate, S.L., on its alliance with the German group Engel & Völkers to commercialize projects of construction of new buildings, a segment of the real estate market currently in full growth in Spain.

As a result of the alliance, the German real estate company will contribute with the strength of its commercial network, while the former owners of Magnum & Partners Real Estate, S.L., will contribute with consulting services, as well as with the acquisition and commercialization of real estate developments.

The team from ONTIER Madrid advising Magnum & Partners was led by Corporate and M&A partner Pablo Enrile working closely with Corporate and M&A lawyers Pablo Hernández and Ana Victoria Cansado.
