

PART 2 AGENDA AFRICA: OPPORTUNITIES & CHALLENGES OF DIVERSIFICATION

Posted on 12/06/2015

Category: Videos

This is Part 2 summary of the debate Iberian Lawyer #AgendaAfrica moderated by Steve Blundell, Director - Redstone Consultants, UK (moderator) 00:20'', 02:18'', 04:19'', 16,06''

Opportunities and challenges of sector diversification: Land, agriculture and infrastructure support a. Does the future lie within agri-business? Mariana Graça, Associate. Africa analyst - Africa Agricultural Development Company, UK 00:41''

b. The challenge of indigenization of the land & titles. Andrew Gamble, Consultant - Hogan Lovells International, UK 02:25''

c. What are the key models to finance infrastructure in order to support other sectors? Teresa Empis Falcao, Of counsel - Vieira de Almeida, Portugal 04:55''

d. What are the crucial aspects that a shareholder/CEO must be aware of when investing in Africa? Pedro Vidigal Monteiro, Legal senior counsel - Europe, Angola, Mozambique, Southern Africa - Andrade Gutierrez, Portugal 06:30''

The "African Dream": Good governance and compliance challenges in unstable political and regulatory environments

- a. How are law firms supporting companies to meet the international good governance standards? Hugo Rosa Ferreira, Partner - PLMJ, Portugal 07:58"
- b. What are the key opportunities that Ghana offers to international investors? David Asiedu, Partner - Oxford & Beaumont Solicitors, Ghana 09:27"
- c. What is the role of the regulator and the current challenges that they face? Nusula Nassuna, Senior legal officer - Capital Markets Authority, Uganda (on secondment to White & Case) 11:43"
- d. Is there an "African Dream"? Sheriff Alabi, Consultant - African Development Bank, UK 14:15"

If you are interested in watching Part 1 go to www.iberianlawyer.com/videos/4708-part-1-a-helicopter-view-of-sub-saharan-africa

For more information about the event please go to www.iberianlawyer.com/past-events/121-agenda-africa-2015/event_details