Lisbon law firm PBBR advised the French group Keys Asset Management on the acquisition of the LX Factory from the Portuguese company Mainside.

The LX Factory is a former industrial site in Lisbon that was redeveloped and is now home to fashion, publicity, communication, fine arts, architecture, and music-related businesses.

Keys Asset Management has €690 million of real estate assets under management.

The PBBR team was led by founding partner Pedro Pinto, and included partners Alexandre Jardim, Sofia Sousinha and Tânia Osório and associates Patrícia Costa Gomes and Isabel Brazão de Castro.
