as an advisor

As IBL could confirm, Fernández (pictured) has been appointed as advisor to the Spanish President and will join the team led by Iván Redondo.

Cani Fernández will leave Cuatrecasas, a firm to which she has been linked for 23 years, on leave of absence, a request approved by its Board of Directors.

Cani Fernández has been a Competition and EU Law partner at Cuatrecasas. She is specialized in Mergers and Acquisitions, Competition and Anti-dumping, Telecommunications, Energy and EU litigation.
