Pérez-Llorca has advised Nazca on the sale of its stake in Cinelux Group to GED Capital

Pérez-Llorca has advised Nazca Capital on the sale of its stake in Cinelux Group to GED Capital.

Cinelux is the leading Spanish company in the lighting services market for the audiovisual sector, which provides lighting for programmes and series such as Élite, la Casa de Papel and la Resistencia.

This divestment represents the first sale of the Nazca V Fund (raised in the first half of 2019) and comes after a successful project of organic, inorganic growth and development of new business lines, which has resulted in a 60% growth in turnover in the period 2018-22.
