Pérez-Llorca has hired Manel Hernández (pictured) as a new partner in the labour law department.

Hernández holds a law degree from the University of Barcelona, a diploma in advanced studies from the University of Barcelona and a master's degree in management of credit institutions from the Pompeu Fabra University.

He also has more than 30 years of experience in all areas of labour relations, including the legal management of legal proceedings, strategic advice on labour matters, negotiation in collective disputes, the development of occupational risk prevention plans and the development of equality plans, among others.

Manel Hernández will work from the Barcelona office in coordination with the other partners of the firm's labour practice located in Madrid, with the aim of creating a team of lawyers in Barcelona and thus developing this area at a regional level.

"With the incorporation of Manel Hernández we intend to develop our labour practice in the Barcelona office at a time when labour relations are becoming increasingly important in companies. Manel's experience and knowledge make him the ideal person to take on this project", says Luis Enrique Fernández Pallarés, partner in charge of Pérez-Llorca's labour and employment practice.
