Pérez-Llorca has appointed Álvaro Ramírez de Haro as the new partner in charge of the firm's London office.

He will replace Fernando Quicios on 1 September.

After five years in London, Quicios will return to the Madrid office, where he will continue advising clients on M&A deals, project financing and restructuring.

Ramírez de Haro joined Pérez-Llorca in 2006. His expertise includes advising on M&A, restructuring, joint ventures and corporate governance.
