Frederico Almeida Garrett is the most recent hiring by Pinto Ribeiro Advogados, joining the corporate and commercial area, coordinated by partner João André Antunes.

With almost three decades of professional experience, Almeida Garrett began his career as an economist, which was followed by nine years as a journalist. In 2011, he started his career in law. After working at Braga da Costa, Sousa de Macedo, Ascensão, Almeida Garrett & Associados (2011 – 2014), Frederico has been practicing law since 2014, predominantly in the areas of corporate, commercial and employment, advising SMEs and private clients, both national and international.

“Frederico, with his multidisciplinary background, combined with a vast and diversified professional experience, will be an enormous asset for the growth and consolidation of the corporate and commercial area”, comments João André Antunes, managing partner of Pinto Ribeiro.
