PLMJ has announced the promotion of 19 lawyers: nine senior associates and ten new coordinating associates

PLMJ

PLMJ has just confirmed its latest round of promotions at the firm. With these appointments, PLMJ now has a group of 40 senior associates and 35 coordinating associates.

Bruno Ferreira, managing partner at PLMJ, underlines that: "These PLMJ promotions are another step towards strengthening the firm, based on the strategy of investing in organic growth and recognising the technical and human qualities of its lawyers. They are career progressions and, as such, they are a recognition of the professional merit of each one, and which, as a whole, lead to a permanent reinforcement of the quality of the work provided to our clients".
