PLMJ has promoted six lawyers to coordinating associate, bringing a total of 29 to the firm

On the promotion, PLMJ co-managing partner Bruno Ferreira has expressed “the appointment of six more coordinating associates reflects the firm’s commitment to the development of the talent and career of our lawyers, as well as to the preparation of future PLMJ leaders. It is in the most challenging years like the current one that it is particularly important to recognize people’s contribution to the results achieved and to say clearly that it is with eyes on the future that we are all working. And the new PLMJ coordinating associates bring together what defines us: talent, team spirit, customer focus and boldness."

The new PLMJ Coordinating Associates are:
