PLMJ managing associate Marta Costa has quit the firm to join Abreu Advogados as a partner

She will join the firm's private client, family property and technology, media and telecommunications team.

Costa (pictured) has extensive experience in private international law, family and succession law, consumer law, personal data, electronic communications law and advertising law.

Costa joined PLMJ 17 years ago. She is the third PLMJ lawyer to join Abreu Advogados as a partner this week - as exclusively revealed by Iberian Lawyer yesterday, PLMJ partners Manuel Santos Vitor and Nuno Cunha Barnabé have also left the firm.
