Alexandra Dias Henriques joins, as of October 2022 and with the status of senior counsel, the area of Competition at PLMJ. With around 20 years of activity, she is one of the most experienced professionals in this field of law.

Ricardo Oliveira, coordinating partner of the European and Competition Area said: "Alexandra Dias Henriques is a major reinforcement for PLMJ's European and Competition Area. The last few years have strong growth, a trend that we anticipate will continue. Strengthening the team with a lawyer with Alexandra's profile will allow us to provide our clients with a even more robust value offer and we are very excited about its integration, both for her vast professional experience, as well as her personal characteristics, which we highly value."

Alexandra Dias Henriques, Senior Counsel at PLMJ: "It is with great determination and ambition that embrace this new challenge in my career, in an office that is, at the same time, a national leader and an unavoidable reference in the European and Competition area. The team brings together a unique talent and a dynamic of work and relationship that make it stand out in the national context and, in that sense, I couldn't be more excited to be part of it and contribute to its continuous growth."
