

PRA PROMOTES THREE NEW ASSOCIATES

Posted on 11/08/2021

Category: Archive

PRA-Raposo, Sá Miranda & Associados has reinforced its team with three new associates, who have successfully completed their training contracts

The Portuguese law firm PRA has announced the promotion of three new associates. Cátia Neto Ferreira (pictured left) and Mariana Fernandes Simões (pictured centre) are now part of the Family and Inheritance Law team, with Mariana Sobrino (pictured right) joining the Litigation and Arbitration team. All three lawyers were hired by the firm as trainees and have successfully completed their training contracts.

"It is always with great pride and recognition that we see our teams grow, with colleagues who, having dedicated themselves in an exemplary manner, having conquered another stage," said Susana Santos Valente, member of the Executive Committee responsible for the Human Resources department at PRA.