Sánchez-Sevilla managing partner, Rafael Sánchez-Sevilla, has joined Prime Legal Abogados as partner head of the firm's Criminal Defence and Compliance areas

On Thursday 14th October, the launch of Prime Legal Abogados was announced, "a first-class law firm made up of an experienced, multidisciplinary team specialising in practically all areas of Law," according to the statement. Sánchez-Sevilla Defensa Penal & Compliance, through its managing partner Rafael Sánchez Sevilla (pictured), has joined Prime Legal Abogados, becoming part of the firm as partner responsible for Criminal Defence and Compliance areas.

This integration process allows Sánchez-Sevilla Defensa Penal & Compliance to add value to its usual professional services, thanks to the background and professional experience of the Prime Legal Abogados team. Their extensive knowledge of the Spanish Legal and business market and their linguistic versatility make it possible to achieve the best practical solutions for their clients, but also the proximity, availability and attention that they deserve.

"At Sánchez-Sevilla Defensa Penal & Compliance we are very happy and excited to participate in this new professional project and we will continue to provide legal advice to our clients in the areas of Criminal Defence, Compliance, Anti-bribery and Whistleblowing Channels, with the independence, autonomy and quality that has always characterised us."
