PwC Spain has signed Michael Tuit as a manager in the firm's EU & Competition Law area, joining from MLAB Abogados

Michael Tuit (pictured) joins PwC Madrid office as a manager in the EU & Competition Law area. He joins from MLAB Abogados, where he was an EU & Competition Law associate since March 2021. Previously, he worked at EY, where he was a senior in Tax controversy and EU & Competition Law, having joined the Big Four in 2015.

He is a Law graduate from the Universidad de Barcelona and from the Universidad de Oviedo, with an LLB from Aberystwyth University. He holds an LLM in European Union Law from the Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, postgraduate studies in EU & Competition Law from IEB and a PG diploma Master's programme in EU & Competition Law from King's College London with merit.

He joins the PwC Tax & Legal EU & Competition team led by partner Alberto Escudero Puente, who joined the Big Four in 2020 from Baker McKenzie.
