PwC Tax & Legal Services has incorporated Miguel Muñoz as a partner to strengthen its tax services and lead the practice of tax procedures in Spain

Muñoz (pictured), who has a wide trajectory in the Spanish Administration, moves to PwC from EY Abogados, where he was a partner in the same area. He has more than 18 years of experience in legal advice and litigation representation of clients from different sectors and in various jurisdictional orders, both national and in tax proceedings and in matters of State aid before the European Union.
