Ramón y Cajal Abogados has advised Atresmedia and Telefónica on the Competition and Commercial aspects related to the creation of JV BUENDÍA ESTUDIOS

This new business has been created with the aim of becoming a reference studio in the creation and production of audiovisual content in the Spanish language.

The operation was unconditionally authorized by the European Commission on June 17.
